

WARNER SLAYING OPENS NEW CLUES

Herkimer Police Expect to Get Lead on Two Other Killings.

(Special to The Evening World.) HERKIMER, N. Y., Feb. 23.—While Coroner Manion of Herkimer County was officially charging Roger B.
Wardner, Mrs. Jennie Warner and Mrs.
Minnie Woodbridge with murder in the first degree in the death of Henry Warner, near Elton Tuesday, Sheriff Cress and the police of Herkimer were following a new track which they believe may lead to discoveries in two other murders which are still unsolved in the county.

Wardner and the two women will be arraigned before the coroner and it is expected the Grand Jury will report indictments at almost the same time.
Mrs. Warner is the mother of the murder victim and Mrs. Woodbridge is her mother. According to the police, Wardner roomed with Clarence Kelly in 1919 in a boarding house here about the time that Kelly's body was found lying by the West Shore Railroad tracks murdered.

M'COMBS'S WILL IS FILED.

Residue of Estate Goes to Brothers and Sisters.

The will of William F. McCombs, former Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who died at Greenwich, Conn., on Tuesday was filed to-day for probate in the Surrogate's office by Frederick D. Ryan, who was Mr. McCombs's law partner. By the terms of the will all his personal effects and all his books except his law library are left to his sister, Corinne Hardy.

The law library is left to Mr. Ryan.
A bequest of $2,500 is made to Emily Young Silvie, Mr. McCombs's secretary and one of $1,000 to Marion Young "for faithful service." The residue of the estate is to be equally divided between the brothers and sisters of the deceased.

NO CANADIAN PROPAGANDA.

Premier of Ontario Advises Manufacturers to Advertise.

(Special to The Evening World.) MONTREAL, Feb. 23.—The "Made in Canada" campaign endorsed by the associated boards of trade was emphatically rejected by the Ontario Provincial Government. When a deputation from these boards waited on the Cabinet and presented the resolution Premier Durney said the Government could not go into any scheme of propaganda for Canadian made goods.

Major Copley of Hamilton said they were asking that propaganda be started to encourage employment in Canadian factories.

"Why should we sell Canadian made goods for more than United States made goods?" asked the Premier, recommending the manufacturers to increase the demand by advertising.

at new low prices

For Miss 14 to 20
Our prices are nearly down to those of 1914.

New Frocks, $39.50

Frocks of crepe de chine, Poiret twill and taffeta—one model in the latter silk is typical of the fashions introduced by Jeanne Lanvin; the great width of its skirt is emphasized by the heavy cording, which alternates with wide tucks; the quaint little basque is unadorned except for collar and cuffs of daintily embroidered batiste; in navy blue, dark brown or black; illustrated.

At $59.50—frocks of the new crepe Roma; a fine heavy silk crepe; model is one of those indescribably lovely creations of pleats, folds and panels without any trimming; illustrated.

"Burnham" Suits, $35

New and exclusive—tailored in our own workrooms. Two severely tailored models for trotteur and sports wear developed in fine imported tweeds.
Coats are silk lined.

"Burnham" Coats, $39.50

A good-looking London model reproduced in heavy heather-spun coatings—in the new shades of blue, tan, green and brown; also in imported tweeds.
Half lined with silk. New and exclusive!

New covert cloth coats—immaculately tailored—also at $45 and $49.50.

Pleated Skirts, $12.75

Smart checked, plaid and striped worsteds in pleated models; carefully selected colors; our $22.50 to $25 grades.

Second floor, Old Building, Tenth Street.

Silk Stockings

are now $3.75 Tax 18c

Plain black, full fashioned, medium or light weight, high spliced heel, double sole and top.
Clocked—black with black, red, green or Copenhagen blue clocking; white with white, black and also some colors; full fashioned.

Size 8 1/2 to 10 in both.
Main floor, Old Building.

Long chamois

Lisle Gloves, $1.15

A special purchase—1,200 pairs—in the wanted shades, mastic, mode, beaver, white and French gray—all sizes. Just the desired weight for this time of the year.

Main floor, Old Building.

Aprons at 75c

Disposal of our remaining stock of bungalow and princess aprons at this low price, to make way for new stock. Good quality percale in a variety of designs and colors.

Third floor, Old Building.

Women's union

suits, $1.15

Lisle thread.

Extra sizes are $1.35.

A better grade, $1.65—for sizes 36 to 38, and $1.85 for sizes 40 and 42.

Main floor, Old Building.

Silk Handbags after Paris—$5

Paris is featuring silk bags in smart and convenient pouch styles. As the vogue of these bags is already established in New York, we shall offer several models in moire silk at the exceedingly modest sum of $5.

One model has etched metal frames, the second has celluloid frames in contrasting colors, and the third has shell celluloid frames.

Navy blue, dark brown or black.

150 Bead Bags, $7.50

In a medium size suitable for wear with Spring frocks.

Main floor, Old Building.

Very, very smart Tweed Suits, $27.75

For such suits as these, the price of $27.75 seems absurd. The suits are of beautiful soft tweed in light gray, French blue, tan, rose and heliotrope; beautifully made in two very correct and well-tailored models, both with notch collars, narrow shoulders, and narrow belts.

Slenderness of line is emphasized by an inverted pleat or fine tucks in the back.
Lined with an excellent quality of gray satin.

Second floor, Old Building.

Latest modes reproduced at $10

The little mushroom hat which is gaining favor every day is reproduced in several smart models—and in the shiny, soft straws which Paris has decreed for spring.

An exceedingly charming model in beige straw, with draped crown, is simply trimmed with a ruching of navy blue silk.

A new tricorn of lisere straw has large and unusual coquards of pleated ribbon;

Scores of other tailored and dress models will be specialized tomorrow at $10.

First floor, Old Building.

from 2 o'clock Saturday until closing hour, to tell stories to young folk.

New crepe de chine Blouses—$13.50

This blouse, illustrated above, has the "costume" quality that distinguishes the smartest of suit blouses this spring.

It is to be had in midnight blue and gray, embroidered in tones of rose and blue, or gray and henna, and several other smart combinations.

Second floor, Old Building.

Distinctive Pumps

—new lines, $9.50

Pumps with Colonial lines are finding much favor this spring among women of taste who welcome the mode that is different, yet entirely correct.

Extremely smart when worn with stunning Colonial buckles.
In patent leather and dull black calfskin.

First floor, Old Building.

Lamb's-wool filled Quilts, only $5.50

This is a very remarkable offer. We are enabled to make the price so low, because certain floating lots of wool came into the possession of our manufacturer, underprice.

Covered with sateen showing floral design in old rose, delft blue or gold, both sides, with plain sateen borders to match; stitched all over.

THE MEN'S STORE

The Men's Store keeps men in good humor.

Men's Two-trousers Suits, $37.50

A happy idea.

How many a suit has been discarded before it should be, simply because of the lack of an extra pair of trousers?

These suits are in—conservative and semi-conservative styles. Materials are unfashioned worsteds and flannels, in grays, blues, browns and heather mixtures. Serges in blue only.
All sizes for young and elderly men.

New Shoes, $9

All leather, calfskin or kidskin, with oak-tanned soles, solid lifts in heels, leather boxes and counters.
Will wear well.

The price is very low.

In black and tan, medium toe, with broad tread, low heels, with stout single soles, blind eyelets to top; black kidskin, broad toe, lace, with eyelets and hooks.

Third floor, Old Building.

Men's Underwear

Medium weight

$6.50 each—tax 15c. Redleaf, London; all wool shirts or drawers.

$4 each—gray, wool and cotton mixed, shirts and drawers; shirts, sizes 34 to 44. Drawers, 30 to 42.

$1.75 each—Natural color, cotton and wool mixed shirts and drawers.

$2.75 each—Combination suits of soft fine ecru, cotton.

Men's Socks, 35c

—3 pairs for $1

Fashioned, black or cordovan cotton, seamless, mercerized cotton in black, tan, champagne, white, smoke, navy blue.

60c pair—Fashioned, mercer-ized lisle, in black, white, cordo-van; fashioned, black cotton with unbleached soles.

80c pair—Seamless, medium weight, pure silk, in black, white, navy, dark gray, cordo-van or tan. Made with mercer-ized cuffs, toes and heels.

Diamond Engagement Rings

$100 $250 $450 $1000 $675 $350 $200 Others $25 to $3500

YEAR in and year out the Solitaire Diamond Engagement Ring has no vacation. Lambert Brothers never relax in their energetic system of pouring stones into their diamond boxes, keeping their supply always at high water mark.

Thousands of Lambert diamonds find their way into engagement rings yearly, others are clustered in rings, brooches, lavallieres or other ornaments. Lambert Brothers' low prices are not due to any fictitious valuation. The House of Lambert resorts to no "tricks of the trade" to stimulate purchases. Lambert Brothers do a square and honest business—that's all. Their low price marks are possible because of their simple and straightforward method of doing business.

"My Broken Arches Are Completely CURED, Thanks to Dr. Mayer," Says Mr. Meisner

IF YOUR FEET ARE SICK

Dear Mr. Meisner:

Being a hatter and having to be comfortable on my feet, I was suffering great pain caused by broken arches. I heard of you, and after consulting a doctor, I decided to try you. I do not know how many other people have been completely cured, but I do know that I am now able to walk and stand as long as I wish like a new man.

It would be a great pleasure for me to recommend you to any one suffering from foot troubles.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) HENRY L. MEISNER.
